

Heat map of verification components

Each defect reduces exactly its own component (outlined in red) while the remaining components stay in the normal range — the defects are isolated.

Integral index: reference model 0.802 — verified; all defective configurations rejected at threshold $\theta = 0.778$. Leakage nullifies V unconditionally through the veto on component T.