

Behaviour of index V under increasing defect intensity, by defect type (dashed line — threshold $\theta = 0.694$)

Defects D (data corruption) and T (data leakage): $V = 0$ at every intensity level — the veto is unconditional.

The index discriminates not only the presence of a violation but also its severity. Component R is insensitive to its own defect in the current implementation.